Poetry Discussion w/ David Biespiel Sunday, March 30 from 3:00 pm to 5:00 pm

Local poet David Biespiel will lead a poetry discussion on the American poet Stanley Plumly. Plumly was an American poet and the director of University of Maryland, College Park's creative writing program. He is the author of numerous collections of poetry and was called one of the most English of American poets.

No registration is necessary. For more information, contact Tom Hogan at tomhogan2@comcast.net

REPAIR FAIR

Saturday, March 15 from 10:00 to 1:00 pm

Join us for this free community event that brings volunteers with fixing skills and people with broken items together.

To confirm an item you want to bring can be repaired, please email sustainability@clackamas.us.

STORYTELLING

On the Rocky Road: Stories of Exiles and Itinerants in Irish Legend and Lore Sunday, March 23 at 3:30 pm

From wandering peddlers and itinerate scholars to religious outcasts and famine exiles, storyteller William Kennedy Hornyak twines poems, songs, history and myth together in honor of the resilient and well-traveled Irish spirit and soul. For mature audiences 14 and older.

CONTAINER GARDENING W/ MAGGIE STUCKEY

Saturday, March 29 at 2:00 pm

Want to grow your own healthy food but have little or no suitable outdoor garden space? You might be surprised to discover how much you can produce in a container kitchen garden!

Award-winning writer Maggie Stuckey, author of The Bountiful Container and The Container Victory Garden, will explain all the how-to's of edible container gardening— including choosing the best plants for containers, the basics of good design, and tips about soil, watering, fertilizing, harvesting and more.

The best part: everyone in the audience will be entered into a drawing, and some lucky person gets to take home a sample garden.

ALL TOGETHER NOW: ART LAB

Tuesday, March 25 drop-in from 2:00 to 4:00 pm

Make a laminated bookmark for yourself or to give as a gift. All ages welcome – grownups, too!
